PAT PILLAY SHOULD

RESIGN!

A vehement vociferation for Pat Pillay, Leader of the Lalyans Seselwa and presidential hopeful, to resign keeps growing by the week. Ever since he decided to make a comeback to active politics, Pat Pillay has been mired in all sorts of appalling controversies. First to surface was a serious allegation of human trafficking and abuse by a young Sri-Lankan male worker, Gihan Fernando, who was in his employment as a live-in carer from December 2014 to February 2015. This was followed by a letter containing allegations of sexual abuse made by one of his former students. Pat Pillay has since been accused of rustling (stealing cows) by a farmer, one Jerry Morin. His land transactions whilst he was still in government exposed him as the most corrupt minister of all times. The fallout from the many allegations has seriously damaged the reputation of Pat Pillay, who is desperately trying to stave off these accusations by suggesting that they were politically motivated and threatening all those who dare write about those abusive extravagancies with legal action. The allegations, however, do not fizzle out and there is growing evidence that even members of his executive committee are getting weary of all these shenanigans.

Matters this week took a turn for the worse with the sudden appearance of Gihan Fernando in Victoria. The young Sri-Lankan has accused Pat Pillay of human trafficking and sexual harassment. A humiliated Gihan Fernando had vowed not to rest until his tormenter, Pat Pillay, whom he has described as a beast, is brought to justice. Gihan is well aware that he has been caught in the crosswinds of the country's tempestuous presidential campaign. He is, however, determined to see the back-no pun intended-of Pat Pillay and is actively seeking legal advice and eventual redress.

It is hoped that the recently revamped Human Rights Commission will take up his case and that local newspapers like Le Seychellois Hebdo and Today in Seychelles will heed the call to stop human trafficking dead in its track by carrying the sad story of Gihan. It is equally hoped that the church leaders will give Gihan a hearing to help heal his anguished soul for it is written that "The soul of the righteous are in the hand of God and no torment shall touch them".

Dr Ramadoss, the erstwhile treasurer of Lalyans Seselwa has also been dissatisfied by the fact that the 12 million rupees he injected into Lalyans has not been accounted for.

An investigation is underway into possible striptease shows at the residence of the Seychelles High Commission in London by male striptease known as Richard Kane.

Meanwhile, it is the hope of one and all that Pat Pillay does the honourable thing and resign as Leader of Lalyans Seselwa. We should all shudder at the thought of having a human trafficker and a dishonest as our President or Leader of the Opposition.
